THE TRIBBY ARTS CENTER SCULPTURE COLLECTION

With works made possible by resident donations, the permanent Sculpture Collection of Tribby Arts Center engages residents and visitors alike. Works in a variety of mediums are installed in both the Tribby's landscape and interior spaces. Bronze and metal works in the Schlackman Sculpture Garden and English Garden represent the Tribby's goal to nurture creativity and engage the mind through programs in the visual, literary, and performing arts. Inside the Tribby, kinetic sculptures in the Atrium evoke our beautiful Florida landscape, while two works displayed upstairs represent the immense talent of Shell Point's own resident artists. FREE

The Gift That Became a National Symbol: The Liberty Bell

From its London foundry's origins, the bell fractured three times and was remelted twice during its initial 90+ year existence, which began as a gift to the people of Pennsylvania to celebrate the 50th anniversary of William Penn's granting of the Charter of Liberties. It then became an iconic symbol for the abolitionist movement and then, the nation's symbol of liberty. FGCU's Dr. Richard Hertzberg will recount his visit to the London foundry where it all happened. Tickets $15

Thursday, September 28 • 4 p.m.

The Mozart of Mexico: Celebrating Hispanic Heritage

Although a host of Hispanic composers contributed a wealth of classical works that are often considered "masterpieces", very few remain in the musical canon. Who are these composers? Why are their works often dismissed? Join FGCU's Dr. Tom Cimarusti as we celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month and explore the musical figures that aptly earned such nicknames as the Bach of Brazil, the Mozart of Mexico, and the Spanish Liszt! Tickets $15
